Charming and impressive, this 5918 sq ft (549 sq mts) home is set in around 5.8 acres (2.3 ha) and depicts an idyllic country home. The highly attractive former farmhouse was lovingly and respectfully restored by the current vendors using materials such as exposed brick and beams, oak joinery, vaulted ceiling and retaining many window openings ensuring this home oozes character. The outdoor areas match, with a large gravel driveway, garaging with space over giving further potential for a buyer to unlock along with brick built stables for five horses and a menage along with grazing paddocks. The perfect place for those with equestrian interests or other rural interests. The property also has the benefit of expanses of attractive gardens which are tucked behind a high brick wall giving a walled garden feel. An orchard area is found beyond.

Nestled between Kirkham and Freckleton in the hamlet of Hall Cross, the house enjoys being close to the amenities to include shops, schools, healthcare providers and parks. The upmarket coastal town of Lytham gives a fabulous social scene, there are also some lovely shops. You are never far away from a coastal walk in this location. Ribby Hall leisure village is just a short drive away for those who enjoy leisure activities. For those with equestrian interests, Myerscough College and Penny Farm are within just a short drive. There is good access to the main road and motorway network and a train station is provided in Kirkham and Wesham with a main line station being available in Preston.

This home lends itself to entertaining, blending traditional reception spaces yet with more modern large spaces making a wonderful home to gather family and friends alike. Glazed double doors open into the reception hall which is a large impressive double height room with vaulted ceilings and exposed beams. The picture window to the front and windows overlooking the front gardens provide plenty of natural light into this bright and welcoming space. A wood burning stove is set on a stone hearth giving a cosy focal point to the room.

Attached to the house is a brick under slate built barn, this is currently used for storage / garaging and has electric 'up and over' doors. A staircase rises up to a space on the first floor creating two further floors and accommodation linked to the house. This area has been re-roofed by the current vendors and has the potential to create further space to suit the buyer.

The gardens and grounds are fabulous with large expanses at the front, rear and side of the property together with patio seating areas at both the front and the rear. There are a range of equestrian facilities to include five stables with plenty of space to store. There is a well drained menage which extends to approximately 30 x 20, but there is some space to increase the area to suit the buyers requirements and subject to a buyer gaining any necessary consents and completing any additional space on the menage.

The remainder of the land is agricultural land and has been used for the grazing of horses for many years. In total, the property sits in 5.8 acres (2.3 hectares) or thereabouts.

The attached barn with garaging/storage has planning consent under application 14/0567 for the part rebuilding of the property (which has been done) and its use as two storey residential annex. The details of the planning consent can be found in Fylde Borough Councils website.
