Originally built in 2004, the property has recently undergone a comprehensive programme of modernisation and refurbishment, and now offers a beautiful home finished to an impressive standard throughout.

Located within the heart of the village of Over Kellet, this highly regarded and well-connected rural setting offers a strong sense of community alongside excellent accessibility. The nearby market town of Carnforth provides a range of everyday amenities including independent shops, cafes, supermarkets and essential services. The larger historic city of Lancaster is situated south, offering additional services. Commuters are well served by Junction 35 of the M6, which is under 5 minutes' drive away, providing convenient access to the north and south, as well as the Lake District. Rail connections are equally accessible, with Carnforth Railway Station and Lancaster Railway Station on the West Coast Mainline providing direct services to London, Manchester, and Glasgow. For the family market, there are well regarded schools, both primary and secondary, available locally, including the sought-after Lancaster Royal Grammar School and Lancaster Girls Grammar. For those who enjoy the outdoors, the location is ideally placed for exploring the Arnsdale and Silverdale Protected Landscape, as well as the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales National Parks.

Kirkdale House has been thoughtfully designed to take full advantage of its setting, with a distinct “upside down” layout that positions the living accommodation on the first floor, maximising natural light and outlook.

The ground floor provides beautifully designed bedrooms set off a central hallway, offering a peaceful and private space. Each bedroom has been carefully considered and finished in luxurious neutral tones. The principal bedroom suite is a true highlight of the property. It is generously proportioned and elegantly styled to create a stunning room. This impressive space is complemented by a dressing area, complete with fitted storage, which leads through to a stylish ensuite bathroom, completed with high quality sanitary-ware and detailing.

There are 2 further bedrooms on the ground floor which are equally well presented and offer flexible rooms for family or guests, or for alternative uses, such as a home office. There is a ground floor house bathroom which serves these 2 bedrooms, designed with both practicality and style in mind. Completing the ground floor is a well-appointed utility room, providing a practical and discreet space for laundry and additional storage. Bespoke designed by Dan Hurley, the quality is second to none.

The first floor forms the heart of the home, with an expansive open plan living / kitchen / dining space, which creates a bright and welcoming area. The kitchen, which has also been bespoke designed and fitted by local cabinetry maker Dan Hurtle, has both form and function in mind, with high quality cabinetry, sleek work surfaces and integrated appliances. Beyond the main kitchen area is an additional prep and party area which complements the main kitchen space.

The dining area offers a substantial space with an outlook to the front of the property, providing a drinks and bar area to complement the kitchen space. The adjoining living space is equally as impressive, being a light-filled room, with large windows framing the outlook over the garden. With a central wood burning stove, the space is ideal for both relaxation and socialising. Double doors lead from the living room to a conservatory garden space which has direct access out to the patio area, making this an ideal room all year round.

The first floor is completed with a highly appointed shower room, with double shower cubicle, wash hand basin and WC, and a separate study area. The stairs continue to the second floor which offers further versatile accommodation ideal for older children, visiting guests or multifunctional use. The rooms on this level offer a sense of privacy and separation from the main living area below. One is currently utilised as a bedroom with the opposite space utilised as storage. This floor has excellent potential to be a further full bedroom suite.

The outside space at Kirkdale House is as thoughtfully arranged as the interior, giving a wonderful balance of practicality and lifestyle appeal within its generous 0.4 acre plot. To the front of the property there is a driveway providing ample parking, bordered by a lawned area with box hedging and attractive flowering beds that create a welcoming first impression. There is also a useful storage area with a garage door to the front, which is ideal for housing tools or equipment. To the side of the property, steps conveniently lead from the front to the rear garden area, making for easy access around the property. The back private enclosed garden is predominantly laid to lawn and bordered with an attractive wall, creating an enclosed garden space with a well-positioned and generous patio being the perfect spot for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond the main garden lies a substantial orchard area, offering a charming and versatile space with a variety of uses, whether as a productive garden, play area or perfect for keeping chickens and embracing a more self-sufficient lifestyle.

Kirkdale House has been carefully created to enhance everyday living, provide superb social spaces whilst ensuring privacy and high standards throughout. This is a home which feels both luxurious inside and out, whilst benefitting from excellent connectivity and accessibility.
